

By – Until

Complete the sentences with 'by' or 'until'.

1. It's a terrible day but the weather will be nice _____ the weekend.
2. It's a gorgeous day and it's going to stay like this _____ the weekend.
3. You can watch this program _____ 9 o'clock and then we're going to change channels.
4. Friday is the deadline. I need your report _____ Friday.
5. I'd like to keep your report _____ Friday, but then you can have it back.
6. 'What time will you be back?' 'Not _____ late.'
7. I'll probably be in bed _____ the time you get home.
8. I've forgotten my keys. Can you stay awake _____ I get back?
9. Make sure you get here _____ six. That's when the meeting starts.
10. The builders say they'll be finished _____ Friday, but that's what they said last week too.

© Vicki Hollett, 2012

www.SimpleEnglishVideos.com

By-Until - Answers

1. It's a terrible day but the weather will be nice by the weekend.
2. It's a gorgeous day and it's going to stay like this until the weekend.
3. You can watch this program until 9 o'clock and then we're going to change channels.
4. Friday is the deadline. I need your report by Friday.
5. I'd like to keep your report until Friday, but then you can have it back.
6. 'What time will you be back?' 'Not until late.'
7. I'll probably be in bed by the time you get home.
8. I've forgotten my keys. Can you stay awake until I get back?
9. Make sure you get here by six. That's when the meeting starts.
10. The builders say they'll be finished by Friday, but that's what they said last week too.

© Vicki Hollett, 2012

www.SimpleEnglishVideos.com

