

Check and Control

Choose the correct word to complete the sentences

1. Police were called in to (check/control) the crowds at the pro-jobs rally.
2. The government has announced new measures to (check/control) inflation.
3. (Check/Control) the list and see if we've forgotten anything.
4. It's a long drive. You'd better (check/control) the air pressure in the tyres before you head off.
5. Once you've completed all the exam questions, read through your work and (check/control) for mistakes.
6. This button changes the TV channel and this one (checks/controls) the volume.
7. They went through our bags at security, (checking/controlling) to see that we didn't have any liquids or sharp objects.
8. She's going to call again next week to (check/control) our progress.
9. Take a deep breath and calm down. You've got to learn how to (check/control) your temper.
10. Many strains of tuberculosis are resistant to antibiotics, which makes the disease difficult to (check/control).

© Vicki Hollett, 2012

www.SimpleEnglishVideos.com

Simple
English Videos

Check and Control Answers

1. Police were called in to control the crowds at the pro-jobs rally.
2. The government has announced new measures to control inflation.
3. Check the list and see if we've forgotten anything.
4. It's a long drive. You'd better check the air pressure in the tyres before you head off.
5. Once you've completed all the exam questions, read through your work and check for mistakes.
6. This button changes the TV channel and this one controls the volume.
7. They went through our bags at security, checking to see that we didn't have any liquids or sharp objects.
8. She's going to call again next week to check our progress.
9. Take a deep breath and calm down. You've got to learn how to control your temper.
10. Many strains of tuberculosis are resistant to antibiotics, which makes the disease difficult to control.

